Cancellation/Non-Attendance Fees

We appreciate that at times schools may need to cancel places on courses or network meetings. Cancellations made more than 5 working days before the date of the course will not be charged, but cancellations made 5 working days or fewer before the training date unfortunately will be charged the full fee. In cases where delegates cannot attend, replacements can be sent. The replacement delegate is responsible for clearly marking their attendance on the course register on the day of the event.
