Course details

Language, Literacy and Learning

International Professional Learning Leader course

nassea
The Northern Association of Support Services for Equality and Achievement

A Train the Trainer course for Primary and Secondary International School teachers with experience of /responsibility for teaching bilingual learners, comprising 15 hours of taught sessions and 15 hours of self-study and classroom-based activities

The Language, Literacy and Learning Professional Learning Leader course aims to:

- Prepare experienced teachers of bilingual learners to lead this professional learning course in their school
- Develop understanding of the role of academic language &literacy in the curriculum
- Develop teachers' knowledge of how E1L and EAL /bilingual learners learn and how to use key strategies for curriculum access and language development
- Develop teachers' understanding of how to scaffold language, literacy and learning in their class or subject area to raise attainment for all pupils
- Promote cross curricular approaches to developing language, literacy and learning
- Support teachers to reflect critically on their own work and that of the school to develop effective strategies and environments for learners of all language backgrounds

Course Content

1. An introduction to language, literacy and learning
2. Language and the EAL learner
3. Scaffolding language development
4. Viewing strategies in the curriculum
5. Reading in the primary/ secondary curriculum
6. Writing in the primary/ secondary curriculum
7. Assessing EAL learners
8. Bringing it all together

Course fee: £560 per participant for all sessions, course book and materials for the PLL course

Course dates: Wednesdays UK time

7.30 - 9.30am 2/9, 9/9, 16/9, 30/9, 14/10, 28/10
7.30—9.00am 11/11, 18/11/2026

Online course

Participants will receive a link after booking

Book your place at: consultancy@nassea.org.uk

www.nassea.org.uk/events Tel: 07731402276